

RENTER'S TAKE-ALONG CHECKLIST

1. PERSONAL

- Credit card
- Traveler's checks
- Money
- Driver's license
- Proof of citizenship for Canadian or Mexican crossing
- Camera equipment and film
- Games, toys, coloring book (for children)
- Fishing equipment
- Binoculars
- Extra eye glasses
- Sun glasses
- Pocket knife
- Sewing kit
- Rainwear (fold-up type)
- Flashlight and lantern

2. COOKING

- Can opener
- Bottle opener
- Spatula
- Long-handled fork
- Measuring spoon
- Skillet
- Pot with cover
- Oven pan
- Plastic shaker
- Mixing bowl and cover
- Aluminum foil
- Wood type matches
- Plastic waste baskets
- Sharp knives
- Coffee pot
- Scissors
- Shot glass
- Hot pad and mitts
- Napkins and paper towels
- Storage dishes

3. BATHROOM

- Hand soap
- Shampoo
- Tooth brushes and paste
- Combs and brushes
- Bath towels that can double as beach towels
- Shower caps
- Toilet kits
- Shaver
- Toilet tissue
- First aid kit

4. LINENS

- Sleeping bags
- Sheets
- Pillows and pillow cases
- Mattress pads
- Extra blankets
- Laundry bags

5. CLEANING

- Scouring pads
- Soft Scrub
- Dish soap
- Sponge
- Hand lotion

6. BABY NEEDS

- Porta-crib
- Car bed or similar
- Expanding gate with rubber bumpers on end... fits in door jamb
- Back carrier for your "papoose"
- Family doctor's phone #
- Formula and baby food
- Prescription medicines

7. MISCELLANEOUS

- String
- Clothes line
- Fly swatter
- Insect repellent
- Masking tape
- Small barbeque grill
- Charcoal
- Charcoal lighter fluid
- Notebooks
- Pencils
- History or travel books on areas you plan to visit
- Stamps for postcards or letters
- Address book (include phone numbers)

8. FOOD

Enough for the first couple of days or so - buy as you go. Use plastic or other disposable containers for dining or food storage. Remember seasonings. You also may want to include limited supply of emergency food rations (candy bars, dried meats & fruit, etc.).

9. CLOTHING TIPS

One "good" outfit for each traveler (hang in plastic bag in closet). Remember - it can get cold in the morning even during the summer. Send for information on areas you are going to visit and plan your wardrobe accordingly.